Germany's first Silvaner vines were planted in Castell in 1659, and to this day the local grape variety is at the centre of the winery. Its greatest potential lies in the seven VDP-classified individual vineyards with valuable soils, five of which are monopole vineyards, some of which are over 750 years old and planted with vines up to 50 years old. Castell works consistently close to nature and with the greatest respect for creation in order to pass them on to future generations.

Our wines are named after the ancient thinkers who lived in our region. 7 Bilgeler, which also has a restaurant and accommodation on site, produced its first wine in the 2011 vintage. In recent years, the vineyards have been expanded to include others in Denizli. The harvest in 7 Bilgeler is done entirely by hand. The necessary applications and their duration are determined with daily tasting and analysis. Production is an intensive and dynamic process where many decisions are made throughout the day.

Quinta Vale Benfeito is located in the wine-producing region of Lisbon, sub-region of Alenquer, one of the most productive in Portugal, just a step away from the sea and the Montejunto-Serra da Estrela mountain range. Quinta Vale Benfeito is located in a south-facing valley, with a privileged sun exposure and sheltered from the north winds, in an area with a landscape of rare beauty – perhaps the most beautiful – where the emblematic Quintas de Alenquer are located. For this reason, we believe that it is an excellent entrepreneurial opportunity to produce the highest quality wines.

FINCA MONASTASIA is born from the roots of a family project, continuing with its essence: perseverance in the tilling of the land. The winery has the best current technology, which allows us to comply with the parameters that we demand of ourselves and in turn our customers demand of us.

All this, with the aim of giving importance to organic viticulture, which is, in our opinion, respectful with the environment and at the same time sustainable.

Celler Pallarades was born with the rehabilitation of the cellar "Cal Pallarades" and with the enthusiasm of a grandson who, since he was a child, wanted to continue working in the field and cultivating the vineyard, transforming the grapes into wine. Josep Armengol, with a degree in Agronomy Engineering, is the one who materialized this dream in 2020, starting to make his own wines.

Clos Pachem is small a winery located in Gratallops, in the heart of the Priorat Wine Region, that started in 2019.

The building is an example of sustainability and the reflex of our way of working: maximum respect in the vineyard working with regenerative agriculture and in the cellar, we produce wines following the principles of minimum intervention, making wines that avoid the use of oak and opting for materials such as ceramic, stoneware, concrete... in their different forms. Wines like those made in the past, but interpreted from a modern perspective.

Italian passion for fine wine and conservation are inseparable elements of Slent, our historic mountainside farm, home of Ayama wines. We learnt about South African soils, grape cultivars, local cultures and more. We remain friends with the local baboon troop even as they devise strategies for a share of our Shiraz grapes. In November 2014 we planted the FIRST Vermentino in South Africa with great results. Our main focus remains Chenin and Pinotage. We make also Grenache Blanc, Viognier, Shiraz, Petite Sirah and Carignan. This farm is a special piece of paradise in the Western Cape.

Nuiba Wines is owned by Suzanne Coetzee. Very unique vineyards have been sourced to make wine with a sense of place. The wines are made in the Clos Malverne cellar using handcrafted techniques. "My red wines are made from Piekenierskloof grapes. Piekenierskloof is a very unique area where most of the vines are bush vines and planted in dryland conditions. The result is small berries with high concentrations and very unique flavour profiles"

Our wines do not belong to any of the world's most famous wine regions. But we're certain that in no other part of the world, can such a project have been implemented, producing wines like those which are starting to see the light.

"If a wine is imbued with the land where it's grown, what kind of wine would come from vines surrounded by 3,000 hectares of untouched nature?"

Neverland Vineyards is more than just about organic wine. It captures the rebellious spirit of two brothers - Sebastian and Marcel Class - and their dream to create incredible journeys for the palate.

With vineyards nestled in the midst of Rheinhessen - an area with one of the highest limestone concentrations in the region - the Class brothers represent the 11th generation of winemakers in their family. Inspired by the free spirit of Peter Pan and the mythical island of Neverland from their childhood, Sebastian and Marcel have been vinifying wines since 2013.

Hoenshof's main goal is to put Belgian wines more prominently on the map and make them more accessible to a broad audience. Jerom Houben says, "A lot of knowledge was passed down to me from a young age. The path to writing our own story is wide open. We don't want to copy and paste, but to innovate."

In 2002, Hoenshof planted its first grapevines on lands that have been in the family since 1907. Today we cultivate 6.5 hectares of vineyards and work mainly with innovative grape varieties that are adapted to a cool climate.

CHATEAU DE CHEMAN produces organic whites, rosés, reds, Crémant de Loire (sparkling) and an exceptional sweet white Coteau de l'Aubance, on 25 hectares, in one of the most beautiful terroir of Anjou, located at the exact limit of the shales (schist) of "Anjou Noir" and limestone chalks of "Anjou Blanc".

This exceptional double terroir allows CHEMAN to raise wines of great aromatic complexity, revealing the minerality of shales and the roundness of calcareous clay. The aging can take up to 24 months in oak barrel, after maceration and fermentation in vat, of grapes harvested plot by plot.

VINAIDA

Ayda Winery&Vineyards, a boutique winery from Izmir, Türkiye, is waiting for you to meet and taste their wines at the x218a, Section Wines Unearthed.

All wines certified as vegan and organic. Using the rare “Vinification Integralé” method for the red and some white wines—where fermentation to pre-bottling occurs exclusively in French oak barrels—enhances the richness and complexity of our wines. Our label, Vínaida, is inspired from Ayda Kalelioğlu, the woman behind the winemaking process. Given the novelty of Turkish wines in the UK market, we believe our wines have a distinctive allure.
